

a few days.—Mr. and Mrs. David Bennett are to move here from Easton and occupy the hall.—Mrs. Montague, who has been visiting her son and daughter, H. F. Montague, and Mrs. R. H. Brown in Underhill for a few days, has gone to New York to visit her son, H. F. Montague, and Mrs. R. H. Brown at home over Saturday and Sunday.

The young people of the Baptist church will have a peanut social Friday evening at the home of George Foster.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jackson of Burlington spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, who are moving on to their farm, which was recently purchased.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall have returned to New York after several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall.—Mrs. Julia Moulton is visiting her son, L. D. Moulton, and family at the center.—Two sisters from St. Joseph's orphanage were in Monday morning for that institution.—Mrs. William Chesmore is visiting her young daughter, Margaret, in the convent at Winoski and is going to Richmond for the winter, where she has employment in the underwear factory. Her son, Francis Mahon, is at Frank P. Percival's for the winter.—Mrs. M. M. Remington is with Mrs. M. O. Hale for a month.—Miss Reulah Atkins was in Burlington over Sunday.—The regular midweek service of the Baptist church will be held at G. W. Foster's church evening.—John Flood is to move to G. Herbert Hutchinson's tenement and work for Mr. Hutchinson the coming year.—The ladies of the Baptist church are planning a Christmas sale of fancy and useful articles to be held after noon and evening of December 19.—The Rev. J. T. Russell returned Tuesday evening from Windsor, where he conducted services Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan were called to St. Michael's College Sunday by the serious illness of their daughter, Arthur, who had been ill for several days. Monday he was removed to the Fanny Allen hospital, some of the physicians holding the opinion he was ill with typhoid. Mrs. Brennan, with her sister, Mrs. John Leary, in Burlington for a few days to be nearer her son, John Garland, who recently left his farm, expects to act as manager of the Kennedy farm near Williston.

WEST MILTON.

Charles Smith is recovering from an attack of bronchitis.—Mrs. Sarah Costello is visiting her son, Mr. W. H. Costello, in his home in Burlington.—Mrs. John Flynn, Rosalee Granger is attending school in Burlington.—Miss Beale, from Vermont, visited her mother, Mrs. John Flynn, on Monday.—Mrs. and Mr. Lansing Smith of Burlington were at M. W. Smith's Sunday.

Miss Maud Warren of Woodstock is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Louise Verrill, at the home of Mrs. Verrill in Burlington.—Mrs. and Mr. Arthur Waterman have finished work at O. J. Hestor's and gone to their home in Union Village.

RICHMOND.

Mrs. I. E. Towne, Mrs. O. B. Wood, Mrs. W. T. Tilley, Mrs. J. W. Miller, and Mrs. J. W. Miller attended the district meeting of Eastern Star in Burlington last evening.—The Louise M. Wiley Circle of King's Daughters will hold their annual rummage sale in the library rooms from November 19 to 21.—Mr. and Mrs. George Hartlett are on a trip to Madison, Wis., where they will be the guests of her sister.—Mrs. Thomas Perry of Milton is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Grant, who have returned to Burlington.—Mrs. White, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Berry, the past week, has returned to Burlington.—C. B. Berry is on a business trip to Canada.—Wayne Green of Burlington was the guest of Mrs. M. M. Greene, over Sunday.—Miss Catherine Leonard has returned from New York, where she was called by the death of a relative.—E. T. Jacobs is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Winslow in Concord, N. H., this week.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

ENOSBURG FALLS.

The body of Lyman Hendrick was taken to Sheldon Friday, where the funeral was held. Mr. Hendrick is survived by three sons, George E. of Utica, J. Y. Walter R. of Fairport, and H. H. of Franklin, and one daughter, Miss Helen, who has made the home near the mother's death on July 6, 1912. The greatest damage caused by the storm of Thursday was to both railroad and highway at the crossing near North Enosburg station, where there was a dike which is dry except in times of very high water. About 60 feet of track was washed out. Travel by highway is stopped over the dike. F. H. Oviatt was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington Saturday for an operation.—The first "ladies' night" of the season of the Philomathean club was held Friday evening and was a very pleasant affair and enjoyed by a large number of the club members and their lady friends.—Tom Jeffords has moved from the Doler Croft farm to the farm of his father, B. S. Jeffords.—L. H. Hyatt has moved from the M. A. Hill farm to the Doler Croft farm. Charles Padavah has moved from that section of this town near West Hill to the M. A. Hill farm.—H. F. Kimball, cashier of the first National bank, has been confined for a few days by illness. His son, H. F. Kimball, is in the bank.—Mrs. A. Aseltine and daughter, Esther, of Burlington are guests of Mrs. Aseltine's sister, J. W. Beatty.—F. H. Oviatt has been in a few days, but is somewhat improved.—The village is laying larger pipe to supply some of the families in the tenth ward with a more satisfactory water service.—George Greene is ill at his home beyond West Enosburg. He is unable to cast his vote in the recent election.—R. S. Haddock has returned from St. Albans, where he was in the hospital several days. He was taken before reaching that city on the day he started for Philadelphia, where he had employment.—Mrs. Ruth Avery Brown was granted a divorce from Thomas Green November 4, near to her former home in Barre. She is allowed to resume her former name.—Miss Merrill has been secured as a temporary supply for assistant teacher at the high school made vacant by the resignation of Miss Mabel Gillis on account of continued ill health.—The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church had a chicken-pie supper in the church parlors Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hadd, who have been in Ohio since their marriage, arrived in town Saturday from Columbus, Ohio, and are staying with Mrs. Hadd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stetson.—The Rev. Joseph Kidder of Westford has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Hannah Scribner.—Robert Felner of Feltner & Co., wholesale grocers of New York city, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Melvin Yates.—The family of Leon Duso, who have been in quarantine on account of scarlet fever, are much improved and will be freed within a few days.—Eugene Burner on the farm of Jay Lamondia at Bordoville had his rich hand and forearm badly mangled while threshing a few days ago and it was found necessary to amputate it just below the elbow.—The condition of F. H. Oviatt has somewhat improved of the trouble he had before going to the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington and no operation is found necessary.—Pneumonia in a mild form has developed, however, so he is still very ill.—L. H. Pomroy is recovering from the attack of acute indigestion experienced Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Aseltine and daughter, Esther, returned to Burlington Tuesday.—Harmon Clough has gone to Lowell, Mass., where he has employment.—Mrs. May Mitchell is spending a few days in Montpelier. Her daughter, Ethel, lives in the last named town.—Dr. W. W. Hutchinson and Mrs. Emily Forsythe were called to St. Albans Tuesday by the illness of Mrs. W. S. Hutchinson.—Mrs. Ann Cotton returned to Everett, Mass., Tuesday, where she will pass the winter in the family of her son, Andrew Cotton.—F. H. Elford left Tuesday for Springfield, Mass.—Mrs. Johnathan Ford is ill.—Principal L. H. Pomroy was taken seriously ill with indigestion during the Sunday school hour in the Methodist church, where he was having a class. His condition was much improved Monday. Supervisor E. W. Wallace is in charge of the high school during his illness.—A. M. Aseltine of Burlington was called to St. Albans Tuesday by the illness of his daughter, Mrs. Aseltine, and daughter, Esther, had been here for several days.

FAIRFAX.

The Ladies' Village Improvement Society met with Mrs. G. L. Butler Wednesday afternoon. It was voted to install an electric light at the further end of Mill street. Mrs. Lottie Ford is ill.

BURKSHIRE.

The Dorcas society met with Mrs. L. B. Larabee Wednesday.—Anthony St. Johns has bought the Gorge house of D. O. Burleson. His son, Clarence St. Johns, who has been occupying the house, has rented his father's farm.—Mr. and Mrs. William King of Concord, N. H., are visiting Mr. King's parents a few days.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brown, formerly of Lowell, Mass.—The Dorcas society will serve a chicken pie supper in the church parlors Tuesday, November 13.—Mr. A. S. Chase and daughter, Alice, of Richmond, passed Sunday with her son, E. T. Chase.—Miss Clara Wheeler of Montpelier, who has been visiting Mrs. S. A. Stiles, returned Tuesday.

ST. ALBANS.

Henry Bryant has announced that the marriage of his daughter, Miss Bessie M. Bryant, to Harry L. Fitch of Springfield, Mass., formerly of Burlington, will take place at the bride's home on Congress street Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

HILLWEST.

T. J. O'Brien has closed his house and home to pass the winter with his sister, Mrs. Susan Whitmore, in Eden.

RICHLAND.

No trains from St. Albans via the Montreal road reached Richmond for a period of 24 hours from Thursday afternoon to Friday afternoon, owing to a washout near North Enosburg.—Martin and Norman Donlon have bought the estate of the late Mr. H. D. Donlon, the postal agent on the Montreal road, including stock, farming tools, etc., for $10,000.

Mrs. A. J. Elliott attended the funeral of Mr. Elliott's uncle, George W. Day, of Jay, Monday afternoon.—Dr. R. Willis Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Adams, of this village, who was graduated from the medical department of the University of Vermont last June, has located at Shelburne for the practice of medicine.—The Rev. Morgan E. Pense, pastor of the Baptist church, will give a series of six educational lectures, illustrated by numerous fine stereoscopic slides, during the winter. The first lecture, "The Man from Italy," will be given November 14.—Mrs. Charles Bean, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Ladd, of Portland, Ore., for nearly three months, returned Saturday evening.—Mrs. Alice Emery of Fairfax, visited at the home of her cousin, A. J. Elliott, over Sunday, while on the way to Jay to attend the funeral of her uncle, G. W. Day.

MONTGOMERY CENTER.

Ernest E. Touchette has bought of Eleanor and William Domina the Austin Lumber farm, situated in the south part of the town, giving his farm near Hecroville and $1,500.—The Blair Veneer company has cut out their stock of logs and shut down for the present. It is not definitely known whether they will stock with logs this winter or not.—Joseph Bessette, Jr., and Mrs. Bertha Bessette, of Montreal, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bessette, at Enosburg Falls. They have taken J. R. Dodge's farm on the North road for a year.—Miss Eva Constantine, who has been at home visiting her parents for several days, has returned to her position at A. M. Pond's in Richmond.—Charles Domina of Berkshire accepted a position with Nelson & Hall company, and moved his family into their farm and boarding house.—The first meeting of the creditors of the bankrupt estate of Thum Peter Lumbra was held in St. Albans Tuesday, several from here being in attendance.—Joseph Bean and Levi Lumbra have taken a contract to cut and skid several thousands spruce logs for J. C. Hutchins.—Miss Mary Dower, a former successful teacher in the graded school in this village, was married recently to Dana Whiting of Highgate by the Rev. F. Wilson Day, pastor of the Congregational church of Franklin.—H. C. Willard, clerk in the store of J. C. Hutchins, and Miss Olga A. Daniels were married at the home of William Daniels Wednesday, Nov. 6, by the Rev. G. R. Emery of the Methodist church. Charles Labelle has moved to East Hill and Alfus Fountain into one of Nelson & Hall's tenement houses.—The funeral of Mrs. Louise Lumbra was held at the Catholic church Monday morning, the Rev. Father Cost officiating.—Walter Clapper and Miss Glenna Bessette were married at the home of the bride Saturday evening by the Rev. C. L. Buckingham, pastor of the Baptist church.

FAIRFIELD.

The L. V. I. S. will give a whist party at the home of Mrs. H. Soule Friday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Finn will hold a dance at the town hall Wednesday evening, November 20. All are invited.

GEORGIA.

The lower school at Georgia Center, taught by Mary Meier, closed November 8 with a candy pull. The teacher was given a post card shower. There were 25 pupils enrolled. Those having perfect attendance were Theodore Bliss, Albert Patter, Mary Patter, Burton Webster, Henry Webster and Herbert Bombard.

Olive Seavin, Merrill Cleveland and Albert McGee were absent one day.

At the regular meeting of Banner Grange, No. 56, P. of H. Friday evening, the first and second degrees will be conferred on several candidates.—Mrs. John W. Reynolds is visiting in Springfield, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. James K. Curtis are spending the winter at the home of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Curtis.—Cottage prayer meetings are being held this week at the homes of the members of the Methodist Episcopal church.—The E. D. Brooks farm has been sold to parties from Canada, and Mr. Brooks and mother and sisters have moved to the Mrs. George Dee place at the center.—Mrs. Samuel J. Morgan died Monday afternoon after a short illness of pneumonia. Her funeral was held at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. C. R. Upton officiated and the interment was in the Georgia Plain cemetery.—Misses Grace Bragg and Ella Cleveland have returned to Barre, where they are engaged in teaching.—The Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Clark have gone to Barre, where they will spend the winter. They will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clark.—Misses Cochran and family of St. Albans were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Green.—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Austin will leave Saturday for New York, and will sail from there November 20 on the "Philadelphia" for Ponce, Porto Rico, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Austin will leave his insurance and phosphate, and other business in the hands of Harry B. Curtis.

SWANTON CENTER.

Clark C. Hubbard and Orrin H. Hill have gone to Florida, where they have taken positions with an orange grower for the winter.—A. P. Boyce is about the house on crutches after an illness of two months with lumbago and complications.—Miss Mabelle Swain is recovering rapidly from an attack of congestion of both lungs.—Mrs. A. D. Wilder of the Jackson district, who fell and broke one hip about six weeks ago, is making a good recovery.—Alonso Powers of the Jackson district is in a serious condition from a complication of troubles.—Mrs. J. T. Catlin is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Corliss, of Highgate Springs a few days.

BERKSHIRE.

The Dorcas society met with Mrs. L. B. Larabee Wednesday.—Anthony St. Johns has bought the Gorge house of D. O. Burleson. His son, Clarence St. Johns, who has been occupying the house, has rented his father's farm.—Mr. and Mrs. William King of Concord, N. H., are visiting Mr. King's parents a few days.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brown, formerly of Lowell, Mass.—The Dorcas society will serve a chicken pie supper in the church parlors Tuesday, November 13.—Mr. A. S. Chase and daughter, Alice, of Richmond, passed Sunday with her son, E. T. Chase.—Miss Clara Wheeler of Montpelier, who has been visiting Mrs. S. A. Stiles, returned Tuesday.

ST. ALBANS.

Henry Bryant has announced that the marriage of his daughter, Miss Bessie M. Bryant, to Harry L. Fitch of Springfield, Mass., formerly of Burlington, will take place at the bride's home on Congress street Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

In Franklin county court Friday Christopher Ducharme, who had been indicted for larceny from the person of Fred Dimond of Fairfax, was sentenced to the house of correction, Rutland, for not less than one year or more than two years. Fred Corliss pleaded guilty to the charge of arson and was sentenced to serve not less than three or more than five years in State prison at Windsor, and was also sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. In the case of May Percy vs. Edward R. Percival, a divorce was granted on the grounds of intolerable severity, and an order was made as to alimony and the custody of the minor child. In the case of Myrtle Wright vs. Floyd A. Wright, a divorce was granted on the grounds of refusal to support. In the case of Nellie Cross vs. Edward Cross, a divorce was granted on the grounds of intolerable severity. In Franklin county court Thursday in the divorce case of Minnie A. Eldred vs. Herman B. Eldred, a bill was granted on the grounds of intolerable severity. In the case of Edith Lowell vs. John B. Lowell, a divorce was granted on the grounds of intolerable severity and permission was given the petitioner to resume her maiden name. In the case of James F. Anstey on the grounds of wilful desertion and the custody of one minor child was given to the mother.

Miss Ellen Moore, aged 71 years, died at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Keenan Thursday morning at six o'clock, after an illness of about a year and a half. Miss Moore was born in County Westmeath, Ireland, in April, 1840, and came to this country when a little girl. She has lived almost all her life in this city. The funeral was held at St. Mary's church Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Franklin county court has taken a recess until Monday afternoon, November 12, in the divorce case of Fannie E. Eldred vs. William W. Eldred, the court dismissed the petition, with exceptions were noted by the petitioner.

The body of Mrs. Elizabeth Poupore, who died at the Warner home Saturday, was taken to Cardinal, Ont., where the burial took place. A short funeral service was held at the home Saturday night. The Rev. H. L. Thornton officiating. Poupore, who was 78 years old, was the mother of Mrs. Barbara Poupore, matron of the Warner home.

The boat in which Nap Cady, who has not been heard from since October 23, when he went fishing at St. Albans Bay, has been found by Mr. Parrot, who lives on Butler's Island. Everything in the boat was in order and the oars were in the locker. It was found floating near the island, but Mr. Parrot did not hear of the disappearance of the man and so had not reported finding the boat. No trace of Mr. Cady has been found.

EAST BERKSHIRE.

Mrs. E. A. Parley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Hawley, in St. Johnsbury.—Mrs. Lillian Sherman of Nashua, N. H., and Miss Katharine Parley of Newbury Falls were the guests of Mrs. F. M. Stone Monday and Tuesday.—William Duffy has returned from North Troy, where she has been the past two weeks.—Mrs. A. P. Pond has returned to Richmond.—Mrs. Merton Lynch and daughter, Miss May Lynch, have gone to Boston, where they will pass the winter. Mrs. Lynch will continue her study of music.—Leon Rouse, who was a part of F. N. Oviatt's house, Philip Haganham of Enosburg is moving into the house vacated by Mr. Rouse.—Cards have been received announcing the birth of a daughter, Dorothy Emeline, to Mr. and Mrs. Leland Whitney of Hopkiss, Mass.

October 27, Mrs. Whitney will be remembered as Mrs. Stella Lovett, formerly of this place.—Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kendall have moved to the Kendall farm.—Mrs. Shattuck of Richmond was the guest of Mrs. Philo Kendall Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hadd were at Frank Hadd's over Sunday.

WEST BERKSHIRE.

The Rev. T. H. Cressy and family returned from England Saturday night. They were given a large donation at the church Tuesday evening, among which was a purse of over twenty-five dollars.—Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Stove of Highwater, Que., who have been visiting his brother and sister, Loyal Stove and Mrs. C. S. Thayer, returned Wednesday.—There was no school Monday.—The teachers, Misses Grace Kelson and Ruth Gilbert, visited the Richmond schools.—Miss Abah Shepherd of Richmond is passing the week with Miss Miranda Ewins.—C. B. Mosier of Burlington passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mosier.

BAKERSFIELD.

Misses Lila McManey and Myrtle Stone have returned to Barre, schools having been opened again after the quarantine for smallpox.—A variety shower was given Miss Elizabeth Brady Saturday in honor of her approaching marriage. Fifty-eight friends and relatives gathered at her home and passed an enjoyable afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Horst Manogue and Mrs. Harry D. Jones visited Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Tilton over Sunday.

November 11 will be observed by the Methodist church as pre-Thanksgiving Sunday. People are invited to bring fruit, jelly, vegetables and the like, for distribution among the poor.

FLETCHER.

D. S. Gillman, road commissioner, and men have been repairing and grading along the road work.—Mr. Corliss expects to move here in a few days.—Mrs. H. L. Maxwell is ill.—Edward Thompson has moved to Patrick Ryan's farm in Fairfax.

FRANKLIN.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Thomas returned from England Saturday night and are spending about 10 days with their son, L. W. Harver, before returning to New Zealand.—Mrs. A. Whitney returned from Burlington Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. St. Johns of St. Albans have been in town for a few days.—The many friends of Mr. H. A. Whitney, who underwent a very serious operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital, are pleased to know that his condition is improving.—The concert in the town hall Thursday evening, which was the third given under the auspices of the town hall choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper which the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church gave Thursday night, which was the third given under the auspices of the church choir society.—The ladies of the village parish will give a chicken pie supper in the town hall Saturday evening, November 20.—Miss Eva Green, who has been assisting Mrs. Theodore in her millinery store, has finished her work and gone to St. Johns, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, who have been visiting in town, have gone to their home in New England, Mass.—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tilton left Monday, visiting in Toronto and Windsor before going to St. Petersburg, Ind., where they intend to spend the winter.—The chicken pie supper